Sorry Snow

Have you ever been tempted to do something you knew was wrong?

In Narnia, the White Witch was very unkind- she tricked people and persuaded them to do bad things which spoilt Narnia. She tricked Lucy's brother Edmund into betraying his family.
In the Bible, we read how Judas betrayed Jesus. In our world, there are temptations all around us and Christians believe that if they are truly sorry, God will always forgive them.

If you would like to, write the word 'sorry' in the white 'snow' as you think about something you regret doing. Afterwards, brush it away, either as a 'sorry prayer' or thought, or as an opportunity to decide to not do it again.
